

SUFFRAGETTES GET A SETBACK

Defeated Women Make
Charges of Dishonesty
Against Sisters.

VOTE DISAPPOINTS.

Alleged That Some Female Workers
Demanded Five Dollars a Day and Sold Out to Competitors.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Chicago Suffragettes militant and otherwise, are somewhat subdued, but there is an undercurrent of bitter feeling over Tuesday's primaries. In the first place they had expected to poll fully three times the number of votes they actually showed. On top of this there are ugly charges of dishonesty, trickery, double dealing and the statement that women, especially those in politics, are far inferior to men when it comes to a matter of honor.

Miss Sarah Hopkins, defeated for the aldermanic nomination in the second ward, and Mrs. Maria Gerhardt's Democratic aldermanic candidate in the 23rd ward, also defeated, made flat accusations that their downfall was due to the treachery of "sisters" in the cause.

Miss Gerhardt, in a bitter statement exposing some of the dishonest tactics on the part of "comrades" ventured the opinion that the country would be infinitely better off if women did not have the ballot. Having delivered herself of this scolding shot, she left the city for a health resort to rebuild her strength, racked to the breaking point by the vicissitudes of her active campaign. She does not mind so much the physical wear, but her spirit is sick over the treachery on the part of "sisters" in the suffragist cause.

Miss Hopkins came directly to the point when she said: "I was beaten by the action of Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout and the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association. It was the statement issued by the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association, advising women not to affiliate with any political party unless assured of success, that resulted in the light vote. I think Mrs. Trout and her organization will have to answer to the women voters of Chicago for the defeat they received at the polls."

"Nothing has been so great a surprise to me in my political experience than the dishonest women with whom I have had to contend. I would much prefer to deal with a man. You can rely on what a man says. The women are not to be trusted—that is a great many of them are not."

Mrs. Gerhardt holds the same opinion. "Several women called me on the telephone," she said, "and offered to work for me at the polls if I would pay them $5 a day. I told them I was not hiring watchers and workers and they then told me they would hire out to other candidates, but would work for me just the same. This means that they would accept money from other candidates and then play false. From this and other experiences I feel the country would probably be better off without woman suffrage."

The surprisingly small vote and the evidence of treachery have been a hard blow to the cause. Returns tabulated indicated that more than two-thirds of the registered women remained away from the primary elections held in many cities and towns of the State.

In Chicago the total number of women who voted was 47,529, or about 30 per cent of the 158,624 who had qualified.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The decapitated bodies of two orderlies of Major General Boesa, commander of the infantry brigade here, were found yesterday on the railroad tracks near Nelsie, Germany. The soldiers had fled after assaulting the general, who had reprimanded them for rising late.

Richard Schultz has confessed that he attacked Mrs. Wade J. Healey, wife of a North Side Chicago druggist, in the kitchen of her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Healey was found by her husband last evening, her throat cut and her power of speech gone. She died soon after he arrived.

The coroner's physician decided yesterday in New York that three girls who died Tuesday night after attending an Italian wedding reception were poisoned by wood alcohol. The police found that wines and cordials served at the reception were homemade, compounded of alcohol, sugar, and coloring matter.

Injured as a result of an explosion of a cook range at the Georgetown Visitation Convent yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, Sister Mary Borgia Campbell fifty-five years old, died seven hours later. Sister Mary Borgia started a fire in the stove, and while she was watching it kindle the explosion occurred. An investigation showed the explosion was due to the expansion of the water chest in the back of the stove from change in temperature. The stove was blown to atoms. A piece of flying metal struck Sister Mary Borgia in the head, fracturing her skull. Her clothing caught fire, and she was burned on the face and hands.

W. S. West, of Valdosta, Ga., yesterday afternoon was appointed United States Senator from Georgia by Governor Slaton to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator A. C. Bacon.

The Georgia Supreme Court yesterday refused the motion for a rehearing of the case of Lee M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan and sentenced to death. Frank's attorneys now are preparing an appeal to the Superior Court, where Frank was condemned, asking for a new trial on the ground of evidence obtained since the trial.

Sam Petty, a negro, accused of shooting Deputy Sheriff Charles Kirkland, was lynched yesterday at Leland, Miss. A mob of 300 men and boys captured Petty, then chained him inside a dry goods box. Around the terrified negro oil-soaked cotton was stuffed and a match applied. In his frantic struggles Petty broke the fastenings which bound him and fled with his clothing ablaze. Half a dozen members of the mob fired and the negro fell dead. The body was then replaced in the flames and burned to a crisp. Petty was accused of shooting Kirkland when the latter tried to arrest him for a trivial crime.

Deputy Fire Chief Andrew J. Sullivan has been declared by the trial board in Washington not guilty of the charges of inefficiency and neglect of duty recently preferred against him. The board also declared that "Chief Engineer Frank J. Wagner, while in charge of the fire at the American five and ten cent store in Seventh street, December 24 last, did not exercise that physical and mental activity which the duties of his position call for. The trapping of five firemen at that blaze was due to Wagner's failure to ascertain the positions of his various companies; also that Battalion Chief Charles B. Proctor's bearing and testimony before this board indicate serious insubordination."

CARD OF THANKS.
The committee of teachers, in charge of the school float, extend its thanks to Mr. John Ewart, for his invaluable services in carrying out their plans, and also to the mothers whose children so staunchly carried out the program regardless of severe weather.

EUROPE BECOMES MORE INSISTENT

Urges Recognition of Huer-

THE BENTON MYSTERY

Villa Refuses to Surrender Remains—
Manifests Defiance—Startling Developments Expected.

Washington, Feb. 26.—"Curb Villa or admit that he is the real leader of the revolutionary forces in the north and that you are powerless." That message from the State Department was delivered to Gen. Venustiano Carranza at Nogales, Sonora, today. On the answer to it will depend whether this Government will maintain its policy of patient watchful waiting in Mexico or consider other tactics.

Carranza holds the key to the entire situation. Despite the utmost secrecy at the State Department it was learned today that Carranza has been told that the United States will not submit longer to having its demands defied.

He has been told that Villa's action in the Benton case is indefensible. He has been warned that popular opinion in the United States will not longer support the Administration's semi-recognition of the constitutionalists so long as the lives of Americans and foreigners generally are not held sacred by Villa and his subordinates.

While nothing in the nature of open pressure has been, or will be, applied, the "first chief" has been notified that his own acts now will show whether he really is the "man of iron," who, if elevated to complete leadership, can lead a united Mexico from anarchy to its rightful place among law-abiding nations.

Chihuahua, Mexico, Feb. 26.—Gen. Francisco Villa, rebel leader, "stands pat" on his statement issued a few days ago, that he will not surrender the body of William S. Benton, the Englishman who was executed, to be removed from Mexico.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Secretary of State Tumulty this morning, following a conference with the Secretary of State Bryan, denied a complete fabrication the reports of a request from Rear Admiral Fletcher at Vera Cruz for permission to send a force of marines into Mexico City. No cablegram of any such nature, Mr. Tumulty declared, had been received by the naval authorities, or any other Federal officials.

The report was that Admiral Fletcher, believing intervention imminent, had recommended sending at least 1,000 marines into Mexico City, believing that if trouble with Mexico should arise, it would be difficult to get a force through from Vera Cruz to the Mexican capital to protect American interests and citizens here.

HUNG BY EAR FROM HOOK.
Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26.—Her ear caught by a meat hook when she fell off a step ladder while lighting the gas in her meat store yesterday, Mrs. Eva Bassman, 42 years old, No. 520 South 20th street, hung in the air five minutes before she finally succeeded in freeing herself.

The point of the hook imbedded itself in the bone back of her ear, so that when she shook herself loose it tore part of her scalp off. At St. Agnes' Hospital, where Mrs. Bassman was taken, surgeons put 15 stitches in the gash. Her ear was hanging by a mere thread. Mrs. Bassman, though not in a critical condition, is weak from the loss of blood which physicians say would have resulted in death if she had not escaped in time.

MASONIC NOTICE.
A called meeting of Andrew Jackson Lodge, No. 120, A. F. & A. M., will be held on Friday night, February 27, at 7:30 o'clock for work. By order of the Worshipful Master, J. E. Alexander, Secy.

NEGRO HUSBAND SUICIDE.

White Wife Never Suspected and Even Doubted Revelation in Court Until Suicide.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 26.—Married for 26 years and posing all the while as a white man to his wife and neighbors, Harry Haynie, committed suicide after his wife had discovered he was a negro.

When an ambulance drove up to the door of their suburban cottage, in response to a call that Haynie had drunk poison, Mrs. Haynie was standing on the veranda. She tossed the key of the front door to the ambulance driver and departed for the home of relatives without waiting to hear that the acid her husband had taken had proved fatal.

During the most of a quarter of a century of his married life, Haynie had been known as a mulatto to his employers, the Marshall Livery Company, while his family, who always were kept in a section of the city remote from his place of employment, did not learn of his negro blood until yesterday, when the fact was revealed by testimony in court when he was tried for fighting another negro. When he was released yesterday he went home and drank poison.

Mrs. Haynie said that in the 26 years she never had even suspected her husband had negro blood, and even after the court trial, in which the fact that his race was brought out she did not believe it. He made no confession to her, but she suspected the suicide act as an admission of deception. They have a son 23 years old.

HANDCUFFED TO TREES.
Unusual Method of Torture For Unlucky Prisoners in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Feb. 26.—County prisoners who refused to work on public roads are handcuffed to trees and fed on bread and water until they are willing to do so, according to statements by persons who recently concluded an investigation of accusation by alleged victims of such punishment.

The charge was made by 10 men who recently were convicted in the Los Angeles Police Court of rioting in the Plaza last Christmas. They were sentenced to serve from three months to two years in the county jail, which meant that they would help build county roads.

The ten prisoners refused to go to work because they had appealed for a new trial, according to their attorney, Jacob Harriman. As a result of their refusal, it was alleged, they were handcuffed to trees, their hands being gradually raised until they were at their entire bodies were placed on their wrists.

Capt. George Shei, in charge of the prisoners, said that all was done to the unruly was to handcuff them to trees, and that the result was merely to make the men "awfully tired." He said the law prohibits striking them.

YEGGMEN MISS A MILLION.
Get Only $5 in Raid on a State Treasurer's Office.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 26.—An unsuccessful attempt to dynamite the vault in the State Treasurer's office was made early yesterday after two of the State House watchmen had been bound and gagged. A third watchman is said by the police to have been asleep in the Supreme Court room while the attempted robbery was in progress.

Two separate explosions were caused around the door of the vault and the men were about to begin a third attempt when they were interrupted and left the capitol with only $5, which they took from a cash drawer in the treasurer's office.

The safe contained about $7,600 in currency, more than $1,000,000 worth of securities, including $200,000 worth of capital extension bonds, according to State Treasurer Brown.

Militants (Bunk) Old Church.
Edinburgh, Scotland, Feb. 26.—Suffragists today burned the historic parish church at Whitelock, near here. The fire was not discovered until it had gained great headway and the old landmark, which was built in the sixteenth century, was almost destroyed.

The fire was plainly of incendiary origin, and militants literature and placards scattered about the grounds assured the police that the women had caused it.

GOV. STUART SENDS MESSAGE

Urges Virginia Legislature to Pass Agricultural Bill.

MEETINGS AT NIGHT.

Important Messages to be Considered
During the Next Few Days Assembly Will be in Session.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 26.—Urging the passage of bills now pending in both houses for raising the standard of purity of agricultural seeds and the passage of bills aimed at misbranding and adulterated paints and other goods, was the basis of the second message by Governor Stuart transmitted to the General Assembly yesterday. The seed bill provides that all packages of seed containing over ten pounds shall be tagged showing facts as to the contents. The paint and oil bill provides that an analysis shall be printed on each pail, indicating the percentage of purity.

The House adopted a motion by Delegates Chalkley, of Wise, providing that beginning yesterday shall hold afternoon sessions and beginning with Monday night sessions commencing at 8 o'clock. The session and night sessions will be for the consideration of bills on their passage, and as the calendar is heavily loaded there will be considerable work to be disposed of.

The House by a vote of 47 to 45, decided to continue the hearings on the Mortgage Banking bill, which has been assailed with amendments and objections.

Senate bills giving the State Highway Commissioners greater power in county road work were killed in the House, many of the delegates charging that there was a waste of highway money and that the local supervisors and engineers could do better and cheaper work because they understood better local conditions.

The resolution for the creation of a tax commission was referred to the Senate committee for investigation as to the power of the legislature to enact a measure which carries the provisions contained in the resolution.

The White-Hart Game Bill was discussed at some length in the Senate. It rejected the amendment of Senator Featherstone striking out the license tax of $1 by a vote of 26 to 6.

The House passed a bill appropriating $5,000 for the perpetual care of graves of Confederate veterans in Hollywood, Richmond, and passed the bill appropriating $10,000 in two equal yearly payments for needy Confederate women not on the pension lists or in charitable institutions.

Senator Mapp of Accomac, reported to the police yesterday the jewelry valued at $400 had been stolen from his trunk. An investigation is being made.

To Revive Greek Tragedies.
Rome, Feb. 26.—The success of the Greek tragedies given in the antique open air theater in Fiesole, near Florence, and their repetition in Rome at the stadium has led to the still more ambitious project of giving Greek Hellenic representations at the Greek theater in Syracuse, more than 2,400 years old.

Prof. Ettore Ramagnoli, who has spent his life translating the Greek tragedies into Italian, has been entrusted with a new translation for the occasion of Agamemnon, the last part of Aeschylus' trilogy, and the staging of it. The costumes are all to be taken from the figures on Greek vases of the time, which actually represent the characters in the tragedy.

PROTESTS AGAINST SCHEDULE

Virginia Citizens Complain to Old Dominion Line.

The new schedule of the Great Falls line of the Old Dominion Railway, effective since last Sunday, has stirred up residents of Cherrydale and other points in Virginia who are dependant on this line to carry them to and from work. Upon protest of patrons, General Manager Emmert restored the 12:50 o'clock train from Thirty-sixth and M streets northwest, the last night train out, in place of the one that left at 12:20, under the new management.

There also is objection to the first train in the morning reaching Washington at 6 o'clock ten minutes behind the old schedule. Mr. Emmert insists, however, that the present service is adequate.

BABES OF SLUMS.
Mrs. Richard Aldrich Offers Home and Will Pay All Expenses.

New York, Feb. 26.—Straight from the slums of the city into one of the city's most exclusive and luxurious homes the babies of New York will find their way for three months this coming summer.

Mrs. Richard Aldrich has offered the Salvation Army the use of her residence from early in June till the last of August. At No. 317 West 74th street, opposite the Schwab mansion, these little children of the tenements will get a chance at life and health. The entire top floor is converted into a nursery, and here under the supervision of trained nurses, the babies will be cared for.

From one to seven years is the age limit. Thirty children at a time will be accommodated and the length of the stay depends on the child's needs.

Ten days is the average visit for these babies into the home of the first John Jacob Astor's great-granddaughter.

All of the running expenses of the home during its occupancy by the children will be paid for by Mrs. Aldrich.

As Margaret Astor Chanler Mrs. Aldrich became beloved for her good works. A nurse during the Spanish war, she received a medal from Congress. Of all her many charities that of helping poor children is nearest her heart.

CONVICT'S DEADLY BATTLE.
Peacemaker Gets Fatal Thrust of Scissors Blade.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 26.—Walter Anderson, colored, a convict at the State penitentiary, was mortally wounded yesterday afternoon in a fight with George Graham, white and died in the prison hospital about 9 o'clock. Both men were employed in the shirt shop. Graham, who was of a troublesome disposition, became involved in an altercation with another convict over some work. Anderson interfered and took sides against Graham. The latter becoming incensed, caught up a scissors from a bench and drove it through the negro's breast.

The trouble occupied but a few minutes and did not attract the attention of the deputies until it was all over. Graham, offering no resistance, was placed in a dungeon.

Anderson was committed November 23, 1907, from Monmouth county, to serve 13 years for atrocious assault and battery, with attempt to commit burglary. Graham was sentenced from Hudson to three and a half to seven years for atrocious assault and battery, March 11, 1913.

HUMAN LIFE THE CHEAPEST.
Clergyman Likens Present Day to Ancient Roman Times.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Low valuation of human life was scored yesterday by Rev. C. I. Schofield, of New York, at the international prophetic Bible conference in the Moody Church. He compared the present with the days of ancient Rome, when gladiators slew each other before a frenzied populace.

"We shudder at the recital of those cruelties," he said "and then turn to our daily paper and read that 114 miners died in a mine, that our railroads kill from 15,000 to 18,000 persons, every year and maintain many more, and we don't care. Today the cheapest thing in life is a human being."

ANOTHER COXEY ARMY IS COMING

Former Leader of Unemployed to Head Half Million Men.

TO INVADE CAPITOL.

Now Arranging Pilgrimage—Alleges
Government is Responsible For Present Conditions.

Washington, Feb. 26.—James S. Coxey will have an "army" surrounding the Capitol building on April 16 too big for the grass to hold, if he succeeds in carrying out the plan he outlined on a flying visit to Washington today.

"No one here seems to believe there are 3,000,000 more men out of employment now than there were one year ago at this time. So, though I am from Ohio and not from Missouri, I am going to show them."

Incidentally the little march will mark the sixtieth birthday of the "general" who, in the spring of 1893, led a similar hike to the Capitol steps, and spent twenty days in jail for his pains on a technical charge of walking on the grass up on Capitol Hill.

On that occasion Coxey headed a body of 1,000 marchers and other delegations from various points brought up the unemployed visitors to about 5,000. This time Coxey earnestly declares he is going to swarm the Capital City with half a million.

"What am I going to do when I get them here?" he asked. "Why, let the Government take care of them, of course. Coxey is responsible for their being out of work, not I."

The main wing of the "army" will start from Massillon, Ohio, where Coxey runs a sand plant to supply railroad builders. Other hordes of 500 arm army train wings of the forces, he declares, will start from points all over the United States so as to arrive here on the same date.

Coxey deprecates any suggestion that he is a mere disturber or agitator. Not only is he willing to "show up" conditions, but he is right on hand with a plan to "fix" them.

Three bills, which he hopes to have passed after Congress takes a look at his "army" he believes would relieve the entire situation, furnish work for the 5,000,000 unemployed, he says now exist, and prevent any possibility of "hard times."

First, he wants a law to allow communities to issue non-interest bonds, borrow money on them from the Government, and hire the unemployed to "beautify and improve the country," and repay the money without interest in twenty-five yearly installments.

Second—A law, establishing a Federal bank in every city to permit loans as legal tender on real estate and chattel property at its face value at 2 per cent tax, and abolish interest.

And the third bill would enable the Government to issue legal tender money to appraise, condemn, take over and pay for the railroads, telegraph and telephone companies at their actual cost and operate them.

Coxey has gone the valuation board of the Interstate Commerce Commission one better, and is ready with a statement that the fair valuation of the outstanding $18,800,000,000 in railroad, telegraph and telephone bonds and stocks is about $6,000,000,000.

Ice Extends Seventy Miles Down the Potomac—Navigation Virtually Closed

There is but little change to note in affairs on the river. The low temperature of last night rendered the ice blockade more effectual and only the more powerful steamers and government tugboats are able to pass up or down and they experience considerable difficulty.

The steamer Northland left this Norfolk, arrived at this morning on time. Captain Posey reported that the ice extends halfway through the Kettle Bottoms.

The steamer Newport News, from Norfolk, arrived at this morning on time. Her officers also reported encountering ice seventy miles down the river.

The river was frozen from shore to shore at an early hour this morning, or until the Newport News opened a track which, however, was soon frozen over.

A government steamer was brought to a standstill opposite this port yesterday afternoon. The tugboat Choctaw came to her rescue, and after considerable difficulty to the large steamer was liberated and proceeded slowly up the river.

Mild weather prevailed today, and should these conditions continue for a little while the passing up and down of the Norfolk and government steamers will start the ice to running when the embargo will be raised.

DEATH OF MRS. BETTIS.

Mrs. Sarah Bettis, widow of Thomas Bettis, died at her home at Manassas yesterday. The deceased is survived by twelve children—nine sons, (among them Lieutenant B. F. Bettis, of this city,) and three daughters. Mrs. Bettis was in the 86th year of her age.

OFFICERS EXONERATED.

Police Sergt. William Wilkerson, and Policeman John Kern were acquitted of the charge of "undue violence," preferred against them by Harvey B. Struder, by the board of police commissioners at an adjourned meeting last night. Mayor Fisher presided and all the commissioners were present.

SNOW INVADES SOUTH.

Some Sections Visited For First Time in 20 Years.

Atlanta, Feb. 26.—The South and Southeast last night shivered in the grip of a general snowstorm, which blanketed the Atlantic seaboard as far south as Southern Georgia and reached to the Gulf States. Weather Bureau records for from 8 to 20 years were broken. Falling temperatures accompanied the storm in many sections, the snow turning to sleet.

The heaviest snowfall was reported in Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and South and North Carolina. At Macon, Ga., the precipitation reached a depth of six inches, while at almost equal amount was reported at Augusta and Savannah. In Louisiana and Mississippi the snow began falling about noon and at nightfall it had been recorded from a trace in the extreme South to six inches in the northern section. Thermometers at New Orleans, Mobile and other Gulf points hovered about the freezing point and the snow melted as it fell.

While snow fell in the Southern part of North Carolina, low temperatures in the Northern section of the State as well as in Virginia and Tennessee caused the precipitation to be very light.

Strangers Attempt to Raise Money and When Arrested Stolen Articles Are Found

O. R. Steppe, of Virginia, and Lawrence Phillips, of Massachusetts, met in this city yesterday and forming an alliance started out in search of adventures. Steppe produced three blank checks on the First National Bank of this city, and made several attempts to have one cashed after "pay to bearer five dollars" had been scrawled upon it with a pencil. No signature was placed upon the check. Of course, no one would cash it under such circumstances, and after having presented the check to B. Abramson, the pair proceeded to the street where they were arrested by Officer Nicholson. Upon being searched several pairs of hose, gloves, etc., were found in their possession.

The two men were brought before the Police Court this morning when Mr. Abramson identified the articles as belonging to him.

The men in their defense said they had no recollection of entering the store or having presented the check. They alleged that they were "full" and oblivious to what occurred. They were fined $10 each, and in default of payment will be sent to jail subject to service on the roads.

RESIGNS RECTORSHIP.

The Rev. E. W. Cowling Goes to Eastville.

The Rev. E. W. Cowling has resigned the rectorship of St. Thomas' Church, Berkeley, Norfolk, and has accepted a call to Hungary's parish, Eastville. His resignation, effective February 23rd, was accepted by the vestry with deep regret. When Mr. Cowling took up the work in St. Bride's Parish, there were scarcely more than one hundred active communicants, worshipping in a small frame church, situated on Berkeley avenue. During his rectorship the parish has grown and prospered. Soon after he took up the work a lot was purchased, to which the old church was removed and a comfortable rectory built. A larger church building and necessary a new church was erected seating 300 persons, in which services have been held since August 1th, 1912, the old church now being used as a parish house.

During his long ministry in his present parish, Mr. Cowling has been an honor to the church and has borne himself with dignity in the community, which has won for him a warm place in the hearts of all who have come in touch with him, regardless of their religious training or profession. He is indeed a high type of Christian man and Berkeley's loss is Eastville's gain, not only in having the rector but also his splendid wife and their five children. The people of the church and the community wish him Godspeed in his new field of labor.

Southern Churchman.

Mr. Cowling is well-known in Alexandria and vicinity. He was born and reared in the West End.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

RUNS DOWN NEGRO.

Harry Griffin Captures James Brown After Exciting Chase in Fluvanna.

Fork Union, Va., Feb. 26.—An exciting chase occurred a few days ago at the Carysbrook railway station. In this chase, Harry Griffin, the veteran pitcher, who has seen service in the Lynchburg, Danville, Richmond baseball teams, was the leading figure. Two men of ebony color became engaged in a fight near Wilmington, when one James Brown severely cut up his African brother. Brown then endeavored to get out the borders of Fluvanna.

Deputy L. P. Campbell got hot or Brown's trail and came up with him in the act of boarding the south-bound train then at Carysbrook station. Brown, on seeing the officer and with visions of the jail going through his cranium decided to use his legs in fleeing to the woods.

Campbell called into the chase at this stage Harry Griffin and R. C. Perkins. A very exciting sprint then got under way, with Harry Griffin leading by a safe margin. Griffin, having had more traveling around the bases, got entirely away from the other men near the flying negro. Brown took a course up the famous Cary's Creek over brush, briars and snow. Harry came up so near Brown that he fired his pistol in the air, hoping the Fluvanna rival of Jack Johnson would surrender, but it only put more energy in his legs.

Harry grew stronger as the game continued, while Brown became very tired. Griffin finally captured him after a two-mile run and turned him over to Deputy Campbell, who landed him in the county jail at Palmyra.

Wouldn't Let Doctors Attend Him.

Harrisonburg, Va., Feb. 26.—The Rev. Samuel Petrie, 84 years old, retired minister and evangelist of the Church of the Brethren, died Monday at his home near God's Mill, Rockingham county.

Having no faith in doctors or drugs, the aged minister refused to let physicians attend him during his illness. All his life he confined his medicine to such preparations as could be made at home. When dying he said that he did not want his life prolonged by artificial means.

He leaves four children, a brother and two sisters.

He deposited a check for $250, which will be returned to him if he has no opposition. Candidates for the board of aldermen and the city council are numerous and the campaign promises to be warmly contested.

WILL NOT GIVE UP LANDERS.

Refuses to Honor Admission for Man Wanted in Pennsylvania.

Richmond, Feb. 26.—Governor Stuart has refused to honor the requisition warrants issued upon him by Governor John K. Tener, of Pennsylvania, for William Eugene Landers, of Roanoke, wanted in Harrisburg to answer his wife's charge of desertion. The requisition was not honored on the ground that insufficient evidence was adduced to substantiate the allegations brought by Mrs. Landers.

Mrs. Landers, who lives in the Pennsylvania capital, issued a warrant for the arrest of her husband on the charge of desertion. He was arrested in Roanoke. At the hearing before Governor Stuart, Landers represented, through his attorney, that there is no ground for the desertion charge because he has exercised earnest efforts to persuade his wife to come to Roanoke and live with him. The desertion, if there is any, is by her, he claims.

Some time ago Landers' business took him to Roanoke. His wife refused to accompany him, but after he became settled in Virginia he tried to effect a reconciliation. His attorney produced a telegram yesterday in which Landers begged his wife to come to Roanoke and make her home with him.

McCORMICKS PROMISE AID.

Will Help Erect Y. M. C. A. Building at Staunton, Va.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 26.—The McCormicks of Chicago, have been showing an interest in the Staunton Y. M. C. A., which has recently sold its building and is preparing to erect a more modern one. Secretary Steele returned from Chicago Tuesday and reported that the McCormicks will give a large sum toward the new building as a memorial to Cyrus McCormick, who was born in Augusta county and built his first reaper here.

Mr. Steele spent a month in Chicago in conference with the McCormicks and with their architects in reference to plans for the new structure. The decisions of the McCormicks and their plans with reference to the new building will be made known to the Young Men's Christian Association board at a meeting next Thursday afternoon.

FIREMAN KILLED IN COLLISION.

Two Others Hurt When Trains Meet Head-on Near Petersburg, Va.

Petersburg, Va., Feb. 26.—A head-on collision occurred early yesterday morning on the Norfolk and Western Railway at Prospect Station, near here. Ten coal cars were badly wrecked and both locomotives damaged.

Robert B. Cooper, fireman of one of the trains, was caught under a locomotive tender and crushed to death. R. E. Mays, the other fireman, and brakeman, E. E. Overstreet, were painfully injured. The engineers of both locomotives escaped by jumping from their cars just before the trains came together.

The collision is said to be due to a misunderstanding of orders. The track was torn up for some distance and all trains delayed.

FIRE IN RICHMOND.

Flames Drive Eleven Into Zero Weather.

Richmond, Feb. 26.—Scantily-clad men and women—most of them attired in little else but their night clothing—fled for their lives into the bitterly cold street early yesterday when fire swept the three-story rooming house conducted by Miss Constance Anderson at 19 North Fifth street.

The thermometer hovered close to the zero mark at the time—2:30 a. m.—and although those driven out soon found refuge in nearby dwellings, they suffered keenly from their experience.

Despite the early hour and the intense cold, the fire attracted more than 1,000 spectators, many of them well-known society people from the fashionable homes in the neighborhood.

Fireman labored valiantly under the worst imaginable conditions, and congratulated themselves on being able to confine the fire to the house. Hydrants, frozen solidly, requiring ten minutes' time to thaw out, and lines of hose in which the water froze the instant a nozzle was cut off, were among the difficulties encountered.

NOT TO SELL MONTICELLO.

Representative Levy Denies He Will Accept $1,000,000.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 26.—Representative Jefferson M. Levy, of New York, owner of Monticello, the home and tomb of Thomas Jefferson, in a letter received here yesterday, denied that he had offered to sell that historic property for $1,000,000.

Regarding the action of the Virginia Legislature in adopting resolution urging Congress to buy Monticello, he wrote that he should have been given a hearing, and added, "If not too late, I would be glad to have that opportunity now."

Count Ito, Japanese official, was refused entry into Mexican territory controlled by Constitutionalists last Monday, according to information that became public today in Nogales, Ariz. Ito crossed the line to visit the American consul at Nogales, Sonora, and was turned back by Constitutional immigration officers in accordance with orders relating to the entry of Asiatics. Count Ito was not arrested or detained. After he had been denied admission into Sonora, Count Ito left for Tucson. He made no comment on the action of the Constitutionalists officials in excluding him. Count Ito, who is a member of the Imperial Japanese Foreign Office at Tokio, was said to have borne a letter from Charge D'Shaughnessy at Mexico City. He declared himself merely an observer of conditions.

There is a man in Cleveland who does not know that the civil war is over. He sent a $50 Confederate bill to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo with a note reading: "The banks here tell me that this is good money, but that I can only get it cashed in Washington. Please send me new money for it." The bill was returned to the sender.

EIGHT-HOUR LAW IS NOW IN FORCE.

The passage of the eight-hour law, which has been signed by the President, is hailed with delight by many persons employed in different capacities in the District of Columbia. Under its provisions the burdens of innumerable of the weak and heavily-laden will be lessened somewhat.

While large numbers of men and youths will experience the benefits of the new law, hundreds of young women, especially those whose homes are in Alexandria, who brave winter's snows and hot waves of summers in going to and fro, will hail the new conditions with delight.

During the short and frigid period of the year such are compelled to leave their homes while the stars are in the sky and return after the heavenly orbs resume their glimmering. Under the new conditions such will have more time in which to eat breakfast and will be enabled to return to Alexandria at more seemly hours.

Managers of some Washington stores where young women are employed have not waited for examinations into the number of hours their employes are in the harness, but have already posted the new rules, which has brought about good feeling between employers and employees.

All the injustice to young people is not perpetrated in so-called sweatshops. There are many fashionable and gilded emporiums where the powers of endurance of the young are put to cruel tests. In most cases attaches of such places are compelled to remain upon their feet throughout long and weary days, and when their toils are over the victims are ready to fall into their beds, their strength being exhausted.

Several years ago a young woman in England wrote her experience which was published in a paper of that city. She told of rising before the sun, eating a hasty breakfast, making a rush for an omnibus to transport her to another part of the great city, and after arriving at her place of employment being compelled to remain upon her feet until sometime after dark. After having returned to her home and eaten her supper it was way into the night. She had no inclination to participate in the diversions of the young, but weak and tired out she was forced to take rest in bed. It required all day Sunday to recuperate from the exhaustion incident to such close application during the week days.

ANOTHER COXEY
ARMY TO FORM.

It was hoped that after Coxey, who led an army of unemployed to Washington many years ago, became a man of wealth, that the cheap notoriety gained by this individual had sent him into a permanent eclipse. The leader of this nondescript band subsequently became rich in mining operations and it was supposed, like the majority who espouse the cause of impecunious people like themselves, he would after chasing the wolf from his own door cease to interest himself in less fortunate human beings.

On the contrary, this leader of hoboes and mendicants announces that he will appear on the Capitol grounds in April with half a million men, part of three million persons he alleges are without employment at present. Coxey lays the blame at the doors of the administration and purposes to saddle the responsibility of taking care of this horde upon the government.

The second army is to march from Ohio to Washington. On the first occasion Coxey rode in a carriage in front of the footsore procession. It is supposed he will have means of transportation at his disposal in April—probably an automobile.

The scenes around the Capitol on his first crusade are well-remembered, being a mixture of the pathetic and the ridiculous.

Hard times will come as do the seventeen-year locusts, no matter what political party may be in power. Such conditions, however, will pass away eventually as gradually as they overspread the country.

Coxey armies are about as important to bring about immediate or lasting good as was the first crusade, when the scum of Europe dreamed they were marching under the leadership of the Creator as they started for the holy land.

The modern Peter the Hermit will accomplish no lasting good in adding half a million souls to the normal army of paupers in the District of Columbia who are now being saved from starvation by public aid.

EFFECTS OF COLD SPELL.

Starving Quail Seek Food at Kitchen Door.

New York, Feb. 26.—Game birds especially quail, are reported to be dying by the thousands on Long Island because for two weeks their food supply has been cut off by the snow. This augurs ill for next year's shooting, since even those birds which survive will be in a weakened condition and their young will probably not be vigorous, healthy game birds.

Hundreds of quail have been seen in barn yards, feeding with the chickens, and some have even ventured to kitchen doors in search of food.

Game protector Harry Haff, who lives at Islip, said yesterday that reports of wild ducks starving to death because the great South Bay is frozen over are erroneous.

WATERBACK EXPLOSION.

Two Children Dying and Mother Badly Burned by Overheated Cooking Range.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26.—Boiling water was the cause of one death in this city yesterday, and several accidents which are likely to result in the death of four others. One child was killed when she pulled a dishpan of scalding water on her head. Another child fell into a tub of boiling water and was terribly scalded. In the explosion of a waterback three persons were dangerously scalded.

When a waterback attached to a kitchen range exploded yesterday in the home of Mrs. Catherine Mullen of No. 4962 Girard avenue, two of her daughters were terribly burned by the shower of fiery coals and scalding steam which followed the explosion and the mother was burned effecting their rescue.

Allentown Women and Church Folk Get Out Remonstrances.

Allentown, Pa., Feb. 26.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor revealed their hands last night as regulators of the liquor traffic in Lehigh county, in remonstrances filed against some of the leading saloons in Allentown. This was the last day.

The W. C. T. U. and the Endeavorers have a big list of remonstrances against the Lyric Cafe, conducted by C. J. McFadden, and the Gross Cafe of Harry Bowman, said to do a business of $1,000,000 a year.

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat and Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect trying to stop this unpleasant ailment trouble the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Egan's Alternative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this cure—
"Gentlemen: For several years I was troubled with cough and expectoration for several months and I was told I was suffering from Throat and Lung Trouble. I was advised to take Egan's Alternative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight, I am out in all activities and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Egan's Alternative."

TO REGULATE EMPLOYMENT.

Brandeis Says Employers Must be Represented by Unions.

Washington, Feb. 26. — Scientific management was suggested as a means of ending irregularity of employment by Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, who appeared before the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations recently. Mr. Brandeis' statement was made public for the first time today.

He declared employees must be represented by unions if scientific management is to be installed on a basis that is fair to the workmen.

"Organized labor has just as great a place in a scientifically managed business as it has anywhere else," he asserted. "Methods, standards, rates of payment have to be determined, and for all these purposes you require collective bargaining of an equivalent determination just as much as you need in other plants. To introduce scientific management without labor union to look out for the laborer, would, to my mind, be almost as dangerous as to vest in the owner the ordinary business power to deal with the employees individually. Even where the employer is humane, intelligent and benevolent, it is not proper that the settlements of the right of his employees should rest wholly upon his will. Both sides should be represented. And for this our trade unionism is essential."

Mr. Brandeis would penalize those employers who needlessly work their men only part time as he would those working their men overtime.

Mr. Brandeis said the commission had a "tremendous problem" before it. "I think the part this commission should accomplish," he declared, "is to make the country realize that moral wrong there is in irregularity just as our people have been made to see the moral wrong in child labor and the excessive labor of women."

It is once recognized that irregular employment is a social wrong, and you add to the recognition of that the incentive of profit, you will find that men will invent ways of accomplishing the desired results.

Arm Broken While Quelling Riot Between Basketball Teams.

Fall River, Mass., Feb. 26. — Rev. L. Brooks, pastor of the Sunnyside Methodist Church is nursing a broken right arm and other injuries received when he attempted to stop a fight between two teams of basketball players on the floor of the church gymnasium Tuesday night. The minister was rushed across the floor and roughly handled, but stuck it out until the warring factions had separated.

FIRE ON STEAMER.

Steamer Rapidan Gale-Battled and Cargo Destroyed by Fire.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26. — Fire raged among the cargo of the British freight steamer Rapidan during a wild storm on February 11 and 12, while the vessel was on her way from Philadelphia to London and Leith. When the storm battered and fire smoldered slowly upon the Delaware river yesterday, her officers and men told of their fierce battle against the flames and how they had succeeded in checking the fire, but only after four men had been injured and a large amount of the cargo destroyed.

The Rapidan left Leith on January 30 and did not have a calm day until she struck the Delaware Capes. The storm was so severe that her rudder lashings were strained to the breaking point. The friction caused by the unfastening of the cargo is believed to have caused the fire.

At 2 a. m., on the morning of January 11, Second Officer Johnson discovered smoke coming from between the deck shelters. He immediately summoned all hands and pumps were manned and several streams of water directed at the blaze.

When the fire was at its height, a number of carboys of acid, part of the cargo, exploded, sending the burning fluid flying in all directions and burning four of the men. All day long well into the night, water was poured on the fire and it was not until early the next morning that the flames were extinguished finally.

When the vessel arrived in port yesterday she carried all of her damage cargo. Nearly all of the acid was destroyed, much of the wool was damaged and a large quantity of metal goods was twisted out of shape.

Cost to Consumer.

Trouton, N. J., Feb. 26. — Sixty-five cents for transportation and commission men's charges separate every thirty-five cents worth of food from the ultimate consumer, declared President J. T. Allison to the Mercer County Farmers' Institute here today. This was the real reason for the high cost of living, Allison stated.

DEWEY AND VON DIEDERICH.

German Admiral Takes Issue With Hero of Manila Bay.

Baden Baden, Germany, Feb. 26.—Admiral von Diederich's, who was in command of the German warships at Manila Bay previous to the capture of Manila by Admiral Dewey in the Spanish-American war, and who has taken issue with the American admiral as to certain incidents that transpired at the time, admits that he had informed the British naval commander at Manila that he would shoot any American officer who attempted to board a German warship "to make inquiry and establish her identity" in carrying out the orders of Admiral Dewey.

Admiral Diederich admits there was a certain justice in Admiral Dewey's complaints to ships being constantly on the move, although this was necessary and in no way meant to be unfriendly.

The bulk of the German squadron was about to be withdrawn, said the German commander, when the conflict arose over the right of visitation, and he then decided to retain his whole force there.

Admiral von Diederich intimated that the conflict would never have arisen if the American commander merely had protested "one or two trivial incidents," instead of firing shots in order to stop two German pinnaces. One of them was passing the American vessels, and was held up because the flag was not showing plainly, and the other was approaching the Olympia at night with a message and was not promptly identified.

The German admiral felt, he declares, that Admiral Dewey's action was decidedly unfriendly. He sent his flag lieutenant, von Hintze, to make a formal protest against the action of the McCullough in halting the German cruiser Irene in order to learn her identity.

This, said the German admiral, was the incident attributed to the Cormoran by Admiral Dewey. The American admiral retaliated with an announcement that no ships, commercial or naval, would be allowed to pass his lines. He then announced his intention of sending an officer on board every warship arriving in the bay, "to make inquiry and to establish her identity."

The word "inquiry" apparently aroused the ire of the German admiral, who identified it with a claim to the right to cross-examine any German commander. Admiral von Diederich says he discussed the situation with the British commander, and told him he would shoot any officer attempting to carry out this order of Admiral Dewey.

A substantial victory for the Germans was claimed by Admiral von Diederich in the final settlement by which any arriving warship was to report itself to the American commander and afterward was required only to show its flag.

According to Admiral von Diederich, his call on the Spanish authorities was justified by the fact that no blockade had been formally proclaimed.

Before leaving Manila, Admiral von Diederich and Admiral Dewey exchanged presents and cordial letters, burying the hatchet and blaming the newspapers for the friction.

Admiral Dewey adhered to his determination to make no comment upon Admiral von Diederich's account of the Manila Bay incident, and further publication of the German admiral's comment yesterday did not change his attitude.

STOREKEEPER MURDERED.

Burglars Rob Place and Set Fire to Building.

Salisbury, N. C., Feb. 26.—Presto: Lysterly, general manager of the mercantile business owned by H. T. Smith, at Barber's Junction Rowan county, was shot to death and his body burned in the two story frame building at the latter place last night. Early in the night citizens heard a gun shot in the direction of the store and twenty minutes later the building was discovered on fire. People who rushed to the scene found boxes piled high against the front door, the rear door open and the interior burning rapidly. The large safe in the office was standing open, bearing evidence of robbery. Near the safe a large oil tank had been overturned and fired. Lysterly could not be found and it is supposed he has gone to his boarding place. Later, and after the store building had burned to the ground, his charred remains were found in the ashes.

Mr. Lysterly was 25 years old and unmarried.
